A Whaleman's Song.

It is a love of adventure a promise of gold or an ardent desire to roam
That tempted ye fare on the wintry ocean
Away from your kindred and home
With a stout hearted crew and a good ship
And a score of brave fellows to live
Inured to the hardships of danger and cold
As this and you'll find your own

When you see the first white Gigs tail show
Upon up from the Arctic wave
When the snowy plumed whales, mighty sons
Of many a frozen main
Have you heard the most loud warning cry
"Thare she blows"
When the boat sail has left the ship's side
For the giant fish with many a dangerous leap
With dart & oar with lance & spade

Have you seen the foam spy waves [illegible]
Which thus boldly attacked in his lair
With a knife blow of his powerful tail
Or the coal spouting up in the air
Or when the fair rest of the sturgeon gleam
As burning with kindling so red
Have you made the north the ocean ring
By the loud joyful cheers that shall there

And have you ever joined in the boisterous cheer
Ringing over through the heavens blue dome
When the fish in the spirit you had chased so long
You visit your vessel in triumph once more
From out of the dark caves of the ocean
Have you ever unlive the prospect to see
Of meeting with loved ones dear
